The Keith Snell Piano Series

The Keith Snell Piano Series presents the highest quality piano literature by leading composers of all musical periods in a graduated series of 11 levels. Each level consists of three volumes of repertoire (Baroque & Classical; Romantic & 20th Century; Etudes) carefully selected and graded for the steady and progressive development of musicianship and technique. Compact Disc Recordings by Diane Hidy accompany each level and closely follow the editions as a practical performance example for students. A correlated series of theory and teacher's answer books (Fundamentals of Piano Theory) and technique (Scale Skills) ensures a well-balanced and complete curriculum for all students.

Carefully selected, carefully graded...the Keith Snell Piano Series allows teachers to get back to what they do best...Teach!

Levels Preparatory Through Ten

Baroque & Classical

introduces students of all levels to the world's greatest literature from the 17th and 18th centuries. Students are carefully introduced to a full spectrum of representative musical forms including fantasias, fugues, theme and variations, preludes, toccatas, dance suites, and sonatas.

Lyrical Piece (Included Service Chapters (Alleger cone bride Chapters (Alleger Chap

Romantic & 20th Century

provides students of all abilities with an extensive and inspirational range of exciting and dynamic music of Romantic and 20th Century composers. Students have the opportunity to study the unique characteristics from each period, including the development of harmonic technique and instrumental color; the increase of harmonic complexity, chromatic harmonies, chromatic voice leading, distant modulation, complex chords; and the free use of non-harmonic tones, as well as the exploration of new sonorities.

The Keith Snell Piano Series

Etudes

selected in this series provide the foundation of pianistic technique. Each carefully selected and graded level enhances and complements the study of music in the other series, and also provides literature ideal for performance, sight-reading, and transposition.

Repertoire, Theory, and Technique Seamlessly Integrated

Fundamentals of Piano Theory

by Keith Snell and Martha Ashleigh provides students with a comprehensive theory course seamlessly integrated with the study of master literature. Written exercises, clear explanations, thorough review, music history, sight reading, ear training, drills, and review tests ensure a solid theory base for all students. Teacher's Answer Books make grading a snap!

Scale Skills

provides an organized system for the study of scales, arpeggios, chords, and finger exercises, all designed to improve finger strength and flexibility, and to provide students with increased fluency and accuracy in performance. Eleven carefully graded levels provide the perfect technique complement to the Keith Snell Piano Series.

Authors & Artists

Keith Snell began teaching when he was fifteen years old, under the guidance of his piano teacher/mother. Since that time he has maintained an independent piano studio with students ranging from advanced high school students to young beginners. Keith received his B.M. and M.M. in Piano Performance from the University of Southern California. He is coauthor of Piano Town, and the highly acclaimed Fundamentals of Piano Theory series. He is also well known to teachers as the editor of the Neil A. Kjos Master Composer and Piano Library Repertoire series, and as producer of the recordings that accompany both. Keith has shared his insights about piano teaching in workshops and master classes throughout North America and abroad.

Diane Hidy is well known as a performing and recording artist. She is a former winner of the Music Teachers National Association Collegiate Artist Competition, among numerous other competitions. In 1987 she was the first woman to become a Beethoven Fellow of the American Pianists Association, and she made her Carnegie Hall debut in 1991. As a recording artist Diane is best known to piano teachers as the performer on the Neil A. Kjos Master Composer and Piano Repertoire series CDs, all of which correlate with the print volumes edited by Keith Snell. Her recording, Lullaby, The Journey Begins won a Parents Choice Award in 2002. Diane attended the Juilliard School and holds degrees from the University of Southern California and Peabody Conservatory. Diane maintains a piano studio and enjoys teaching her students who range from 5 to 75 years of age.

Martha Ashleigh teaches piano, music theory, Advanced Placement Theory and composition in her private studio in California. She is a faculty member of Modesto Junior College where she teaches piano, music theory and music appreciation. Her students are consistent regional and state competition winners in both piano and composition. Martha is an active member of the Music Teachers Association of California. She has served on the Certificate of Merit Council for the MTAC since 1991 and became state coordinator for the MTAC Certificate of Merit student evaluation program in 1996. Martha received her B.S. degree from the University of California, Los Angeles, and her M.A. degree in music and education with an emphasis in composition from California State University, Stanislaus.

Nelita True has emerged as a leading example of that rare individual who is able to combine successfully the demanding careers of concert artist and teacher. Formerly Distinguished Professor of Piano at the University of Maryland, and now the Chairman of the Piano Department at the Eastman School of Music, Ms. True has achieved a national reputation as one of the country's most productive teachers. Her master classes and workshops for piano teachers have drawn praise throughout the United States and Europe. At the same time she has maintained a full schedule of recital performances and appearances as soloist with symphony orchestras.

Hans Boepple is renowned for his brilliant teaching career. His students have won more than one hundred state, national, and international piano competitions. Deeply committed to teaching, Mr. Boepple has given Master Classes throughout the United States and is the Chairman of the Music Department at Santa Clara University in California. Mr. Boepple also enjoys a distinguished career as a pianist and has appeared with many outstanding orchestras, including the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Minnesota Orchestra, Denver Symphony, and the Metropolitan Opera House Orchestra. Mr. Boepple earned his Bachelor and Master of Music degrees from Indiana State University where he was a student of Sidney Foster. His precollege teacher was Robert Turner of Los Angeles.
